

A Gift For you

When Anxious

When I find myself all anxious,
remember that God cares;
when I panic at the moment,
remember He is there ;
when I'm tempted with self-pity,
God can lift me from such pits;
when I'm jealous or resentful, say, "I'm not called to this".

Remember God knows all things;
remember burdens He will bear;
remember God's ways are perfect;
for Heaven He does prepare.

Remember! Remember! Remember!
Remember God understands!
Nothing can hurt or touch me when I'm in His will and plan.
His love can never be broken;
He promises with me to stay.
So when anxious, fearful, or tempted,
lift up my heart and pray.

by Desley Anne Finedon
www.poems-to-lift-the-heart